Anna counsels insurers on complex coverage matters and represents insurance agencies, insureds and other stakeholders in various litigation matters in federal and state courts nationwide, and in arbitration. Anna counsels technology companies on compliance with portable electronics insurance and service contract provider law and regulations nationwide.

Previous Work

Prior to joining ArentFox Schiff, Anna was an Associate at a business law firm in New York focusing on insurance coverage of aviation and aerospace risks. She also previously defended insureds in products liability, directors and officers, and employment matters and handled commercial arbitration disputes before the ICC International Court of Arbitration.

Professional Activities

Anna previously served on the New York City Bar Association's Insurance Subcommittee of the Aeronautics Committee and its Arbitration Committee.

Life Beyond the Law

In her free time, Anna enjoys travel, horseback riding, and volunteering for the Yale Alumni Committee.
