Sara represents clients in a wide variety of complex civil litigation and white collar criminal matters from inception through trial, such as contract disputes, employment matters, fraud defense, business torts, and ERISA litigation. Her experience includes drafting and responding to demand letters and complaints, conducting written discovery, including propounding and responding to interrogatories, requests for documents, and requests for admissions, taking depositions, drafting and arguing motions, and questioning witnesses in hearings and at trial. Sara's work has also included achieving favorable settlements for clients ahead of trial.

Previous Work

Sara joined ArentFox Schiff as a summer associate in 2021, where she researched various legal issues regarding real estate, insider trading, contracts, discovery, labor, and tortious interference topics. Before joining ArentFox Schiff, Sara worked as a student attorney with the Boston University School of Law Individual Rights Litigation Clinic, where she represented indigent clients on housing, unemployment, and family law matters. Sara has also worked as a judicial intern for the Hon. Donald L. Cabell at the John Joseph Moakley United States Courthouse and a legal assistant at Gordon E. Meyer & Associates, P.C.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Sara enjoys skiing, gardening, relaxing on the beach, and scuba diving. She is also very engaged with her undergraduate school, UMass Amherst.
