ArentFox Schiff LLP
Attorneys

Rebekkah R.N. Stoeckler

ASSOCIATE

Rebekkah focuses her practice on complex litigation.

Industries

Health Care
— Provider-Payor, Health Plan & Managed Care Disputes

Practices

Complex Litigation
False Claims Act Investigations & Litigation
— Investigations

Education

Roger Williams University School of Law, JD, 2022

United States Merchant Marine Academy, BS, 2014

Offices

Washington, DC

Phone

202.857.6118

Email

Rebekkah.Stoeckler@afslaw.com

Rebekkah is an associate in the Complex Litigation group. Before joining ArentFox Schiff, Rebekkah was a Judicial Law Clerk for Chief Justice Paul A. Suttell at the Rhode Island Supreme Court. She also previously served as a Judicial Extern for Magistrate Judge Patricia A. Sullivan at the US District Court of Rhode Island, and as a Judicial Intern for Judge O. Rogeriee Thompson at the US Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

In addition to her legal and judicial experience, Rebekkah served as a Lieutenant in the US Navy Reserve (2014–2021). Before attending law school, she was also a T?AGSE Fleet Liaison for the Military Sealift Command and a pilot for Kirby Inland Marine, where she navigated barges on the Mississippi River and Intracoastal Waterway.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Rebekkah enjoys paddle boarding in the summer and skiing in the winter. She also enjoys following Formula 1.

Celebrating ArentFox Schiff's Veterans: Rebekkah Stoeckler on Going From Military Service to Client Service

Upon graduating from the US Merchant Marine Academy (USMMA) in 2014, Rebekkah earned her commission and joined the US Navy Reserve, beginning her military career as an Ensign. She currently holds the rank of Lieutenant and continues to serve in the Navy Reserves.

Read more

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia

Rhode Island