Rachel supports clients on a variety of real estate and other transactional matters.

Rachel began at ArentFox Schiff as a summer associate. She was previously a compliance intern with the University of Notre Dame Athletics Department and a corporate extern for a major nonprofit health care system. Her background also includes internships in the Securities and Exchange Commission's Cyber Unit and in the U.S. Senate.

While in law school, Rachel was a NCAA D-I athlete and served as the Executive Managing Editor of the Journal on Emerging Technologies.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Rachel enjoys watching sports, baking, and checking out new restaurants.
