Catrina first joined ArentFox Schiff as a summer associate and now brings a reliable and solutions-oriented approach to her role as an associate. Prior to joining the firm, she externed at the US Securities and Exchange Commission, where she drafted closing memoranda and conducted research across FINRA and SEC secure databases to assess regulatory compliance. She also gained experience in intellectual property through externships with media agencies and boutique entertainment and IP firms.

During law school, Catrina participated in the Howard University School of Law Intellectual Property and Trademark Clinic, assisting creatives and small businesses with trademark registration procedures. Before her legal career, she honed her negotiation and analytical skills as a media buyer and gained firsthand knowledge of federal court operations while working at the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Her diverse background in regulatory compliance, intellectual property, media, and court operations enables her to approach complex legal challenges with proficiency and a well-rounded perspective.
