Brianne is an associate in the Complex Litigation practice. At the University of North Carolina School of Law, Brianne was an Articles Editor for the First Amendment Law Review. She also served as the Special Projects Coordinator for the school's Pro Bono Program, organizing and overseeing housing and post-conviction pro bono work.

While in law school, Brianne interned at the Wake County Office of the Public Defender, where she worked on both felony and misdemeanor matters.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Brianne enjoys professional and collegiate sports, team trivia, and spending time with her cat, Turbo.
