Amelie focuses her practice on a variety of matters involving corporate and real estate.

Amelie spent two summers at ArentFox Schiff. While attending law school, she worked as a legal intern at Lincoln Miller Law where she helped clients with estate planning, business planning, and real estate matters. She also worked as a summer legal intern at Fannie Mae where she gained experience in a variety of areas including securities law, contracts law, employment law, and constitutional law.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Amelie enjoys digital photography, hiking the Pacific Northwest, architecture and design, beach volleyball, paddleboarding, exploring museums and new restaurants, traveling to different countries, and rooting for the Michigan Wolverines.
