Meghan is an associate in the Complex Litigation practice. Prior to joining ArentFox Schiff, she served as a judicial clerk to the Hon. Jason Park at the District of Columbia Superior Court. Before that, Meghan was a Law Clerk with a Third Year Practice Certificate and then an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney at the Arlington County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office, where she represented the Commonwealth, under supervision, in detention hearings and bench trials.

While attending law school, Meghan interned at the United States Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of Virginia and the District of Columbia, the Administrative Conference of the United States, and the Arlington County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office.

Meghan also has a foundational background in management consulting. Before attending law school, she was a senior associate at a leading assurance, tax, and consulting firm.
