Phillip has experience as a judicial extern to the Honorable Susan Illston at the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. During law school, Phillip was a member of the moot court team serving in dual capacity as a competitor and coach. Phillip also worked as a Student Associate with Startup Legal Garage, a yearlong program that combines doctrinal and skills classes with supervised fieldwork to provide free legal service to startups.

Prior to his legal career, Phillip spent a decade as a Senior Applications Engineer, providing technical expertise in product platforms and scientific theory of nanoindentation and mechanical properties of materials.

Phillip is also a graduate of Le Cordon Bleu Culinary Academy, adding to his diverse skill set.

Life Beyond the Law
