Natasha supports clients on various intellectual property matters, including the management, clearance, prosecution, and enforcement of intellectual property portfolios. She also supports clients in the fields of advertising, e-commerce, and artificial intelligence in a number of industries, including fashion and retail, consumer products, media and entertainment, and food and beverage. Natasha first joined ArentFox Schiff as a Summer Associate. During law school, Natasha interned for the Honorable Claire C. Cecchi, United States District Court (D-NJ), and was a member of the Fordham Urban Law Journal and the Corporate Social Responsibility Clinic.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Natasha enjoys traveling, walks on the West Side Highway, and cooking.
