Paola is a member of the real estate financing team in our New York office, focusing on lender-side multistate, multi-property transactions involving multifamily dwellings, manufactured housing communities, and affordable housing.

Paola's work involves negotiating title coverage, negotiating legal opinions and drafting financing documents. Paola also represents companies in connection with products associated with tax-exempt bonds. In that capacity, Paola reviews offering documents and ensures that the transactions meet all requirements.

Paola previously worked at ArentFox Schiff LLP as a summer associate. During law school, Paola was a SJC 3:03 student attorney at the Boston College Law School Immigration Clinic and interned at The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights. Prior to law school, Paola was a Project Assistant at ArentFox Schiff's D.C. office.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Paola enjoys traveling, reading, listening to podcasts, trying out new bakeries/restaurants, and spending time in the sun.
