Grace assists in a wide range of matters across several practice groups and industries.

Previous Work

Grace first joined ArentFox Schiff as a Summer Associate. Prior to joining the firm, Grace led public relations campaigns in Singapore and Korea, including sustainability campaigns and executive thought leadership for technology and public sector clients.

During law school, Grace was a legal extern at the American Health Law Association, where she developed educational content on core health law topics, and a judicial extern for the Honorable Sheri Bluebond at the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. Grace also served on the Southern California Interdisciplinary Journal as an article editor.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Grace enjoys exploring the food and matcha scene in Los Angeles, binge-watching K-dramas, swimming, and spending valuable time with friends and family.
