Brian leverages his prior experience as a Legislative Aide and Staff Assistant to Congresswoman Suzanne Bonamici (D-OR) to support ArentFox Schiff's Government Relations clients. While on the Hill, Brian researched and monitored proposed legislation, liaised with constituents and stakeholders, assisted with scheduling, and drafted communications.

Brian also previously served as a Communications Consultant for The Atlantic Council, where he developed valuable experience and insight designing and executing communications strategies through press releases, publications, and coordinated social media content.
