

Kalvin Guyer

ASSOCIATE

Kalvin is an associate in the Financial Restructuring & Bankruptcy Practice.

Practices

Financial Restructuring & Bankruptcy

Education

Texas A&M University School of Law, JD, 2023
Wofford College, BA, cum laude, 2020

Offices

New York

Phone

212.457.5585

Email

kalvin.guyer@afslaw.com

Kalvin is an associate in ArentFox Schiff's New York office. Drawing on both judicial and private-sector experience, Calvin advises clients on a range of bankruptcy and restructuring matters. His background includes litigation, regulatory, and compliance work.

Publications, Presentations & Recognitions

Author, "The Undue Hardship Standard for Student Loan Discharges Perseveres in the Fifth Circuit," Bankruptcy Law Section, State Bar of Texas Spring/Summer Newsletter

Panelist, "Ethics Panel," Houston Consumer Bankruptcy Conference (2025) addressing AI use in bankruptcy law

Panelist, "5 Issues in Subchapter V," Texas Bankruptcy Bench Bar Conference (2025)

Panelist, "Law Update," UT Consumer Bankruptcy Conference (2024)

Professional Activities

Kalvin serves as Secretary to the Young Lawyer's Committee of the Texas State Bar, Bankruptcy Section.

Since 2024, Calvin has served as an assistant moot court coach for the Texas A&M University School of Law bankruptcy moot court team. The team competes in the annual Conrad B. Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition, has won multiple regional titles, and won 1st place in the 33rd Duberstein competition in 2025.

Previous Work

Prior to joining ArentFox Schiff, Calvin gained experience across litigation, government, and financial services settings. Notably, he worked as a judicial clerk to the Hon. Sean H. Lane, Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York and to the Hon. Eduardo V. Rodriguez, Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Texas.

Life Beyond the Law

Outside of work, Calvin is an avid fan of the New York Mets, the New York Knicks, and Texas A&M. He enjoys playing the violin, Southern BBQ, and spending time with his goldendoodle, Pete.

Bar Admissions

New York

Texas