Madison Bower is an associate whose practice focuses on complex civil litigation. She represents clients in contract and employment disputes, class actions, and intellectual property disputes. Her clients have ranged from Fortune 500 companies to individual plaintiffs, in arbitration and state and federal court.

Previous Work

Before joining ArentFox Schiff, Madison was an associate in private practice, where she handled complex civil litigation in arbitration and state and federal courts. She started her legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Jon Phipps McCalla of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Tennessee. Before law school, she worked as a technical services analyst at a healthcare software company.
