Randy has extensive experience litigating high-stakes matters in state and federal courts, including preliminary injunctions, motions practice, jury and bench trials, arbitrations, and mediation.

Randy has handled matters related to municipal bond finance – including workouts, investigations and the False Claims Act, and trademark litigation. He also has represented agricultural chemical manufacturers in numerous data compensation disputes arising under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act (FIFRA), business disputes, employment, trade secret and unfair competition actions, and a variety of tort and contract actions.

Professional Activities

Randy is also committed to pro bono activities. In 2010, he was awarded the Klepper Prize for Volunteer Excellence for his work with the Legal Aid DC. In 2006, Randy was awarded the Albert E. Arent Pro Bono Award for his work with Legal Aid DC. Randy currently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for Legal Aid DC.
