Ben represents corporations, financial institutions, developers, and small businesses in defending and prosecuting complex commercial, employment, and real estate litigation cases. He manages caseloads across jurisdictions and argues motions in state and federal court related to breach of contract, fraud, consumer protection, federal and state regulations, equitable relief, and common law torts. Ben also oversees discovery and the negotiation of settlement agreements. Ben has successfully briefed cases before the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court and the US Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Ben is active in the pro bono community, where he works with indigent tenants facing unlawful evictions.
