At ArentFox Schiff, diversity, equity, inclusion, and empowerment are part of our DNA. We are committed to creating a diverse workplace where every individual knows they are valued, seen, heard, and a vital part of our firm.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I apply for the ArentFox Schiff Diversity Scholarship?
− Visit our Attorney Opportunities page
− Select the office(s) you wish to apply to in the "Apply Now" drop down menu
− Choose the Diversity Scholar application
− Submit all required materials

How long will it take before I know if I have been selected?
We encourage applicants to apply as early as possible, and we will conduct interviews on a rolling basis until all scholarships are awarded. The majority of interviews will be conducted virtually. If you are selected for an in-person interview, we will pay for any necessary travel expenses and hotel accommodations for you to travel to one of our offices for the interview.

When is the deadline?
The application will open on our career portal accessed through the Attorney Opportunities page in June. Applications from second-year law students will be reviewed on a rolling basis and interviews will be scheduled throughout the summer. It is anticipated that offers will be made by late-summer/early-fall 2023. There are up to five scholarships awarded each year by the Firm.

What are the Scholarship Program’s goals?
The Scholarship Program is part of our effort to increase diversity at the Firm and in the legal profession. Since 2006, we have annually awarded scholarships to diverse law students across our offices, resulting in 60 scholarships and growing.

Application Material

Personal essay
Please select one of the following prompts:
− Shirley Chisholm famously said, ‘if they don’t give you a seat at the table, bring a folding chair.’ One of Harvey Milk’s best-known quotes is, ‘rights are won only by those who make their voices heard.’ What would be your personal quote, and how does it describe and relate to you?
− Tell us about yourself. What information about you is not reflected in your application or on your resume?
− Why is diversity, equity, and inclusion important to you?

Resume
Law school transcript (unofficial is accepted)
Legal writing sample (5–10 pages, single or double spaced): Must be exclusively your own work. The sample may be from your legal writing course in law school.

Three (3) references, professional or academic references (Letters of recommendation are optional).

Incomplete applications will not be considered.
Who is eligible to apply for the ArentFox Schiff 2L Diversity Scholarship?
For the scholarship program, ArentFox Schiff defines diversity broadly to include gender, LGBTQ+, race/ethnicity, religion, first-generation students, people with disabilities, and veterans.

What is the actual scholarship award?
The ArentFox Schiff Diversity Scholarship includes a $25,000 award and a salaried summer associate position ($3,950/week). The $25,000 scholarship will be paid in two installments: $12,500 during the student’s second-year summer and another $12,500 payable when the student returns to ArentFox Schiff as an associate after graduation.

Which ArentFox Schiff offices participate in the scholarship?
All ArentFox Schiff offices with a summer program participate in the scholarship program. This year, the following AFS offices are hosting a summer program: Boston, MA; Chicago, IL; Los Angeles, CA; New York, NY; San Francisco, CA; and Washington, D.C.

Can I express interest in more than one office?
Yes, you can express interest in up to two AFS offices that have a summer program. However, if you are chosen to move forward in the process, you will ultimately interview for a position in one office. Please only express interest in the AFS offices in which you are strongly interested in starting your legal career.

I am an evening law student. Am I eligible to apply for the scholarship?
Yes, if you are considered a second-year law student and have two summers before graduation.

Are split summers allowed?
We do not allow split summers for our scholarship recipients.

I do not currently have a law school transcript. May I submit an unofficial copy with my application?
Law school transcripts, official or unofficial, must be submitted as soon as they are available. Electronic versions are the preferred method.

What if I have problems opening up the links or attachments?
Please be sure to turn off your pop up blockers (under Tools).
